Manager Water and Wastewater

Message from the CEO

Charters Towers is an exciting place to be at the moment with unparalleled development activity and projects underway, together with associated community building.

Coupled with this, Council has a unique opportunity to support our people and our organisation by articulating a clear vision, developing a positive and nurturing culture, and articulating purpose and priorities.

My leadership ethos is based on the following key aspirations:

- Communication – you will be committed to clear, concise, and honest communication with all staff and Councillors as well as being a good listener.
- Empowerment – you will be willing to let go of the reins and empower your teams to excel at what they do best while providing advice, support, and removing barriers.
- Caring Culture – you will create an environment where everyone's opinion is valued and heard and will put health, safety, and happiness first.

- Continuous Improvement - you will always be looking to improve the way we do things and provide opportunities for cross-team collaboration to achieve change over time.
- Ethics and Integrity – you will demonstrate strong moral principles such as respect, impartiality, social responsibility, transparency, and honesty.

If you believe that you would thrive, add value and contribute to this vision for our organisation, I encourage you to apply for this role.

Thank you for considering this opportunity.

Martin Drydale
Chief Executive Officer

Our Organisation

Charters Towers Regional Council

Seven (7) Councillors are elected to represent the Charters Towers community.

In March 2024, Councillors Kate Hastie, Alan Barr, Kim Farmer, Graham Lohmann, Steven Plant and Julie Mathews were elected for the Charters Towers region, with Cr. Liz Schmidt elected Mayor.

The Charters Towers Regional Council employs over 250 people, all of whom are involved in the delivery of our Corporate and Operational Plans.
